Dear Valued Casitas Owner:

It's Spring Time ... already... with the Easter Week falling in March this year...we enjoyed a busy March with a variety of guests including Convention Business and many Families.

NEW AT LAS CASITAS VILLAGE....

WIRELESS INTERNET... We have initiated the wireless internet access (WiFi) at Las Casitas Village. Additional access points are being installed this week, and we are close to being 100% covered in all areas. As an enhanced service for Casita Owners....during your stay with us, all Owners receive free internet access.

COQUI WATER PARK... Swoosh... what a hit... our Easter / Spring Break families loved El Conquistador's newest addition to the resort! Have you seen also seen the billboards in the metro area of Puerto Rico? They look great. We would like to announce special rates for Las Casitas Owners in the Rental Program... $12.95 for Adults and $8.95 for children (ages between 3 -12), up to 4 tickets per Villa thru December 24, 2008. Water Park capacity is limited and in order to receive your special rates, you must be registered at the resort. To purchase tickets, please inquire at the Manor House. Also located at the Water Park is the newly opened Oasis Bar & Grill.

MARKETING... Speaking of billboards and advertising... see our enclosed advertisement of Las Casitas Village. This recent ad showcases our new style and format for our advertisements. This ad was featured in the March 2008 edition of Caribbean Travel & Life magazine. This publication goes to a circulation of 155,529 people.

GOLDEN DOOR SPA...

Have you taken on one of our fun, yet challenging fitness classes lately? One of our most recent additions is called "Drums Alive"... an explosion of energy as you beat the drums to outrageous music... talk about releasing stress and burning calories at the same time! Drums Alive is featured Saturday's & Wednesday's at 9:00am at the Golden Door Spa movement studio. Las Casitas Owners in the rental program receive complimentary Access to Golden Door Spa, Fitness Center and all of our featured Classes.

As we near the Summer Months... our team is looking forward to welcoming you back home to Las Casitas Village.

Warmest Regards,
